- Tutorial project account UCGD0011 will expire on Nov 23rd

Reminders

On the last day (today), there will be a general survey.

This is important for us to improve the content of the tutorial. Please complete the survey. CGD merch could be yours!

Today

Generating diagnostics

Model output visualization examples that you may use BUT inevitably you will need to generate your own visualizations for your specific work

The further you progress in these exercises the more likely you will encounter difficulties / problems
